One possible version:

I'd like to go to Li Hua's birthday party this Saturday.

There will be a lot of friends there. Li Hua likes doing sports very much. So I want to give him a pair of comfortable shoes or a T-shirt. I'm sure he will like the present. At the party, we will eat birthday cake. We will sing Happy Birthday to him. Then we will play games, tell jokes and listen to music. It will be great fun. I'm looking forward to it.

One possible version:

There is a computer in my home, and my parents and I share it.

I often use it to do my homework and search for information on the Internet on weekdays. I listen to music or watch movies on it every Friday night. On Saturdays and Sundays, I can check my e-mails and send e-mails to my friends. Sometimes, I talk to my friend in Beijing on the Internet. But I never play a lot of games, because my mother doesn't like it and it is not good for my eyes to play them for a long time.

Computers are useful in our life. We should use them in a right way.

One possible version:

Dear Andy,

I'm glad to hear from you.

I go to school at half past seven in the morning. We start to have lessons at eight o'clock. We have four lessons in the morning. My favourite subject is maths because it's interesting. At half past ten, we have a break in the playground and I often talk with my friends. We have lunch in the dining hall at twelve o'clock. We have healthy food like fish, meat and vegetables. We have three lessons in the afternoon. Then we go home at half past four. I am busy but happy at school.

I always get fun at school. I enjoy my school life a lot.

Yours,
Li Hua
